

Special Collections friends & family Open House

What: A chance to visit with Special Collections staff, see cool things from the collections, and an exclusive gallery tour of our current exhibit The Quest for the Beautiful Book: William Morris and the Kelmscott Press. Light snacks will be provided. Kids are welcome!

Where: Special Collections Lobby and Reading Room, Basement level of Allen South Library (located below Research Commons)

When: October 23, 2019, 5:30 – 7:30 p.m.

Why: It's Archives Month! We thought this would be a great time to share treasures from our collections and connect with new and longtime friends.
